ALEX

Beautiful, Intelligent, innocent, and a fundamentally happy person. Not entirely naive but believes the good in people. Her career and advancement largely unsuccessful...but her soul is intact. As she hardens herself against fear and the evil that's cracked open her world view, she becomes more forceful, and in some ways, more successful... as she retreats further into the darkness. In the end she has a singular, joyless focus - revenge.

NICO

Raffish and positive, Nico makes everyone around him feel good.

Much has come easy in his life as a result of this likability. He's got his vices... but he's so warm and true that we look past them. All of this makes it much more difficult to handle when things start going wrong. He doesn't understand why he can't reach Alex... why she's driving him away... why she's suddenly closed off to him. It seeps into him... and damages him deeply. And when he discovers the truth... he sets out on a quest of his own.

Experienced, world weary, and alone, Murphy can't help but think of Alex like his own daughter, nearly the same age, who disappeared after an unspeakable trauma.
